Collins & Morrison, saddles, always in stock at—CLOUGH & COLLINS.

James Bellwood and family departed Monday for Long Beach, California, to spend the winter in the hope of benefiting Mrs. Bellwood's health.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Fenner drove down from Dunlap Saturday. Mrs. Fenner will remain in the city a few days with her sister, Mrs. H. A. Allison.

Mrs. F. F. Badgley returned last week from her visit with relatives at Omaha, Campbell and York. She also attended the Rebekah assembly at Lincoln as a delegate.

Dr. Allen this week sold his cottage just opposite Judge Hewitt's to Mrs. Katie E. Aushostesen for the sum of $800. The doctor is getting to be quite a real estate dealer here of late.

A week ago Sunday Hon. W. R. Akers and B. V. Reeves went to Hemingford where Mr. Akers delivered his lecture on "Jerusalem." Our Hemingford correspondent speaks very highly of the lecture.

Ellis is not content with attacking the publisher of THE HERALD but rings in the O'Keefe family. One thing is certain he cannot say that any member of the O'Keefe family has been caught in the act of burglarizing an Alliance store.

Mrs. Everett Eldred of Orlando is the guest of Mrs. C. A. Newberry.

Mrs. B. Mewhirer was quite ill this week but is now convalescent.

Frank Putman and family went to Bridgeport, Thursday, on a pleasure and business trip.

Bert Perry has bought a lot on North Box Butte avenue and expects to build a house on it in the spring.

Claud Brown, the accomodating clerk in H. L. Bushnell's store at Hemingford, was an Alliance visitor Monday.

The HERALD is not issued as a "semi-weekly" but it is a rattling good weekly. $1.50 per year. Subscribe now.

The young people of the Baptist church will give a reception to the other young people's societies of the city this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tully and son came up from Lakeside last Friday morning and left for Rushville on No. 41 to spend a few days.

Lost—In Alliance, a pocket book containing between $10 and $12. Finder will be liberally rewarded by returning same to John H. Dusk.

The First Presbyterian church holds services in Bell's hall. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Y. P. T. C. E. at 6:45 p. m.

Sunday, at M. E. church, subjects as follows: In the morning, "An Election Sermon"; evening, "A Profitable Investment." Cordial invitation to all.

You will find interesting reading on every page of the HERALD. Eight pages all home-print. The only paper in Nebraska west of Lincoln that gives its readers such service.

Mrs. S. D. Watson, of St. John's, Mich., arrived yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. R. T. Watson a few weeks. Mrs. Watson made many friends in Alliance during her visit here a year ago.

Miss Vina Perry gave a party at her home last Friday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Pearl Howard's birthday. About forty of her friends were present to enjoy the pleasures of the evening and to wish Miss Pearl many returns of the occasion.

Peter Weinle, a successful German farmer living seven miles northwest, brought us a sample of his potatoes Saturday. One potato weighed two pounds and one ounce and another one pound and fifteen ounces, but of course they are not all quite that large.

Sunday at the Baptist church G. C. Jeffers pastor. Subject of morning sermon, "Our Substitute." The Lord's Supper follows. Subject of evening discourse, "Wooden Yokes or Iron Yokes, Which?" Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Juniors meet at 3. C. E. meeting at 6:45. Midweek prayer service Thursday evening. A welcome to all services.

The state fish commissioner's car was in Alliance last Saturday with fish for Box Butte county waters. John Pilkington who planted fish in Ashbaugh's lake and Elmore's dam a few years ago met the car and received about 1500 cat fish, croppies, and bull heads and planted them in Elmore's dam on Snake Creek. He also planted some in Spring Creek.

Frank Connor, a pioneer of this county who was a homesteader near Box Butte in the '80s, arrived yesterday from the Emerald Isle where he has been for the last fourteen years. Mr. Connor still holds his land in this county. When he left here there were only a few houses in Alliance and he was astonished to find it the live, up-to-date city that it now is.

Rev. M. L. Sagders preached an eloquent and logical sermon on "The Evidence of Things Not Seen" at the Methodist church last Sunday morning. It was full of beautiful thought, and also of that reasoning which appeals to those individuals who are of causal turn of mind. Dr. Horn's congregation must certainly be pleased with the pastor he secured to fill his pulpit during his absence.

The editor is in receipt of a handsomely engraved invitation which reads: Mr. and Mrs. Michael Elmore request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Elizabeth Lucille to Mr. J. William Reed on Wednesday evening, November the twelfth at half after ten o'clock, at Holy Rosary Church, Alliance, Nebraska, and a card reading "Reception at half after eight P. M., Business Men's Club." Miss Elmore is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Elmore and Mr. Reed is a popular B. & M. conductor. The HERALD will have more to say about these popular young people at a later date.

A Record Breaker.

During the last ten days ONE HUNDRED and TWENTY-SIX new subscribers have been enrolled on THE HERALD's subscription list. To prove this statement our books are open to advertisers or anyone wishing to investigate. THE HERALD has the largest circulation of any paper in the county and pays out twice as much as any other paper for labor and correspondence. HERALD readers can always depend on getting the best, no matter what the cost may be.

Every week I see from 3,000 to 5,000 newspapers from all sections of the world, and just here I want to say that the ALLIANCE HERALD is ranking among the top-notchers in points of typography, excellence of its news service and evidences of enterprise. THE HERALD is the best advertisement Alliance could possibly have of its enterprise, thrift and progress.—WILL M. MAUPIN.

Dr. Horn's first "around the world" letter was written from Denver and published in the last issue of the ALLIANCE HERALD. The letters promise to be quite interesting and as the author is well known in this section, these letters will be eagerly sought for by the public generally. THE HERALD is to be congratulated for securing this literary treat.—Bayard Transcript.

The Catholic Fair.

The Catholic fair held during this week in the opera house was the affair of the season for popularity and success. Everybody, and above all the youngsters, vote it to be "just the thing." Good fellowship, good feeling and kindness were the dominating features. The hall looked its best with the booths and other decorations so tastefully arranged. The fancy table was laden with beautiful and artistic needlework and articles of silver and porcelain. The candy and lemonade booths were very much admired for its tasteful decorations and the charming young ladies who presided there.

The supper served every evening by the ladies was such as to evoke encomiums heartfelt and sincere for the quality, quantity and neat service. The energy and devotion displayed by everybody working for the fair deserves particular mention, and shows the reason for and cause of its success.

The hand painted vase was won by Mr. Michael Elmore who drew the lucky number 14. Many beautiful and useful articles have already been raffled off. The list of winners will be published next week.

The contest for the meerschum pipe and the silver service are expected to bring in quite a handsome sum. The last contest will close at 11 o'clock to-night, (Friday) at which time the fair ends. One of the things, the raffling of which is awaited with great anxiety is the large doll—dressed as a beautiful bride, in a robe which is a model of art and fashion. Everybody admires it and covets it almost guiltily. The fair of 1902 will long be remembered by all those who participated in it as one of the happy times of their lives and it is to be hoped it has served somewhat to break the chill barriers that sometimes exist between people living in our youthful and flourishing city.

The Mission.

At the Episcopal church next Sunday a mission lasting five days will commence, conducted by the Rev. Dean Cope, Dean of the Cathedral Laramie. The services on Sunday will be in the usual order, 8 a. m. and 11 a. m., with evensong and sermon at 7:30. On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the order will be, Holy Communion at 8 a. m.; instruction at 4:15 p. m. and mission sermon with hymns at 7:30 p. m. Dean Cope is one of the ablest divines in this jurisdiction, and the intention of the mission is a spiritual awakening and the presentation of the Gospel message to all. All questions put in the question box will be answered and an opportunity given for the acceptance of their obligation of a Christian life.

G. BERNARD CLARK.

Brose and Clemens, Comedians.

On next Monday and Tuesday nights, November 3 and 4, this company will give two performances in the opera house consisting of a musical program on nearly every musical instrument made. There will also be given character sketches of a humorous order and taking it all together it will be an entertainment of a high-class order with fun from start to finish. Reserved seats will be on sale Monday. Prices: 50 cents, gallery 35 cents and children 25 cents.

ITEMS FROM DUNCAN'S ADDITION.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Bakewell and family have returned from a prolonged visit in the eastern part of this state. He is an enterprising young man, a carpenter by trade, who recently purchased some lots and built near Judge Spacht.

Grandma Williamson is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Beach. Primrose Dowler has taken his abode in Duncan's addition again.

Naomi Danner went out with an art loving crowd to Box Butte. She made several exposures with her new camera at Grandpa Wilson's ranch.

John McNulty and wife are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Baby Bales is quite sick with scarlet fever.

Fined $5 and Costs, Each.

The case of W. E. Ashbaugh vs. Attorneys Smith P. Tuttle and L. A. Berry came up in county court today. The charge was trespassing and is dated September 19. Judge Berry says that in July and also in August, Ashbaugh gave him and Tuttle permission to come to his place and hunt during duck season and they accordingly went out September 19. Mr. Ashbaugh was not at home but his family were and after the disciples of Blackstone shot a few of the feathery tribe they opened their hearts wide enough to give three of them to Ashbaugh's boys and brought the rest home. When Ashbaugh came home and was told of the "terrible crime" perpetrated on his premises he waxed warm and came to town soon after, filing a complaint against the "intruders" for "hunting on his premises without permission and killing seventeen wild ducks." The case was continued until today when Mr. Ashbaugh, with his wife and two children appeared in court. The cases were tried separately. Wm. Mitchell appearing for Ashbaugh, Tuttle represented Berry and Berry was counsel for Tuttle. The court held that the defendants should have permission for the particular day on which they hunted and according imposed a fine of $5.00 and costs, each. Berry refused to pay the fine and will appeal the case. Mr. Ashbaugh is the republican candidate for commissioner in the second district.

They Are Still Coming In.

McGuffey, Ohio, Oct. 24, 1902.
EDITOR HERALD,
Alliance, Neb.

DEAR SIR:—You will please find enclosed P. O. order for $2.25 to pay for three six months' subscriptions to your paper. They want them to begin with Dr. Horn's letters. Please send to the following address: G. S. McGuffey, Mrs. W. W. Shadley, Jennie Garlinger, McGuffey, Ohio.

Dr. E. C. Horn is well known throughout central Ohio and is loved by all who know him. He and his family have our love and best wishes wherever they may be. I am,

Yours Truly,
T. C. G. MCGUFFEY.

George Darling for furniture.

W. L. Jewell, a well known stockman of Lawn precinct, was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Jewell called and paid up his subscription for a year. He said "Now don't stop it when my time is up for I want the HERALD right along."

C. K. Snow, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Snow of this city has accepted the position of editorial writer on the Nome "Gold Digger" during the winter. There is no doubt but what Chester can fill any such position very creditably as he has a good education and an abundant supply of "grey matter."

THE HERALD has no desire to attack the character of W. E. Ashbaugh, the republican candidate for commissioner. He has already "killed himself off" by promenading around the country with I. E. Tashbaugh, who has been trying to get an office for the last ten years and is now further from it than when he started.

Rev. C. H. Burleigh of Lakeside called and chatted a while Monday. Mr. Burleigh was on his way to Crawford where he is engaged in getting out of the report of the Northwest Nebraska and Black Hills conference. Mr. Burleigh is a printer and is doing the work himself at the Tribune office. He's doing a fine job, too.

C. E. McFall, a well known rancher from near Lakeside, accompanied his sister, Mrs. A. Bell to Alliance, Wednesday, where she boarded the train for Denver, her home. She had been visiting at the McFall home for a month. Mr. McFall called to extend his subscription and said, "I am pleased with the HERALD and think it is the only paper in Alliance."

Additional local on 4th page.

Those neckties are dandies, at Norton's. You should see those new portraits at Mark's studio.

The Alliance Meat Market will close all day Sundays after November 24.

A second hand buggy for sale.

J. W. RICHARDSON.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church will meet with Mr. Ringler next Wednesday.

Eleven more new subscriptions today. Why, they're coming in so fast we can scarcely keep count on them.

FOR RENT—Four furnished rooms, together or separate.

W. E. GILLET.

The janitor question and in fact every proposition raised by the degenerates have become so hot that they are mighty glad to drop them.

Herman Schultalbers, a substantial citizen of Box Butte precinct, and a good friend of the HERALD transacted business in the metropolis yesterday.

G. H. Clayton of Canton returned yesterday from Omaha where he marketed cattle. Mr. Clayton sojourned in Alliance last night, the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Jeffers.

Rev. N. C. A. Garneis, of Hemingford returned yesterday on No. 41 from a two weeks' stay in the eastern part of the state. Mr. Garneis attended Lutheran conference at Blair.

Pay no attention to any charges that may be sprung after the HERALD goes to press when it is too late to reply. They will be lies or they would have seen the light of day before.

This is Halloween and it might be well for some of the "amart set" to bear in mind that Deputy Marshal Humphry has some special deputies and has provided the city bastille with some extra berths.

Deputy Marshal Humphry placed Joshua Stine under arrest this morning for being drunk and disorderly. Afterwards Stine complained that his watch had been stolen and from the description given of the man who took it the marshal placed Ed Raney under arrest.

George M. Johnston, a practical newspaper man and printer, has accepted a position with The Telegraph and his influence will no doubt be felt in increasing the value of the paper to our subscribers.—Sidney Telegraph.

Mr. Johnston's ability as a writer has been well set forth in his work in the Mitchell valley, his souvenir edition of the Mitchell Index being indeed a proof of this. Mr. Johnston lent us a hand when help was much needed before going to Sidney. The HERALD wishes him success and prosperity and knows his work on the Telegraph will be to its advancement.

Expression of Thanks for Favors.

Alliance, Neb., October 31, 1902.
TO THE EDITOR HERALD.

DEAR SIR:—Though the medium of your paper I wish to convey my grateful appreciation, on behalf of the Catholic Church of Alliance, to the merchants and citizens of Alliance for the many favors and patronage they have shown us during the fair which has been so successfully carried on this week.

Yours Faithfully,

BERNARD F. GAVLIN.

Dr. Horn's last week's letter is concluded in this issue. Today we received a very interesting thirty page letter written from San Francisco but on account of the extra work and rush incident to election we shall not be able to publish any part of it till next week. In a letter to the editor Dr. Horn says: I leave here to-night—October 27—for Portland, Seattle and Vancouver. Will write from Vancouver next Saturday. I leave Vancouver on the "Empress Japan," Monday, November 3. The management not only gave me free transportation to Vancouver but presented me with sleeper free for the two nights. My letter from Vancouver will be short so you divide this letter up as you see fit because I cannot get a letter back from Yokohama earlier than first week in December." We are pleased to note the favors that are being extended to Dr. Horn which is evidence that his friends at home are not the only ones who have confidence in him and we know that he will be extended special favors on his entire trip. Shortly before his departure from Alliance the doctor sent one of the HERALD's "Around the World" posters to A. C. Shaw, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, with whom he was negotiating for transportation of the second-class. Mr. Shaw immediately sent Dr. Horn first-class passage free, stating in his letter that he desired him to have the very best at the company's disposal and he would see that Dr. Horn was extended every courtesy by the company's agents on his trip. This first-class ticket would have cost Dr. Horn upwards of $150.00 extra. Mr. Shaw also advised Dr. Horn that he desired every issue of the ALLIANCE HERALD as he would take great interest in his letters.
